

Christopher Tirro

Sr. Vice President, U.S. Financial Lines Claims
AIG

Christopher Tirro is a Senior Vice President in AIG's U.S. Financial Lines Claims group. He leads the team responsible for all M&A claims in the U.S., as well as the team responsible for all management liability and professional liability claims made against U.S. Financial Institutions.

During his 21 years at the company, he has also handled and managed claims in many other areas, including non-FI directors and officers, employment practices and pension fiduciaries. Previously he was a practicing attorney in Rockland County, NY, handling ERISA litigation.

Chris graduated from Pace University School of Law in 1995 and was admitted to the New York State Bar in 1996.